SITUATION BETTER IN CRESCENT CITY

Efforts of Experts Have Good Effect In New Orleans.

FEWER NEW CASES EVERY DAY

The Effect of the Splendid Demonstration Made at Big Festival Has Been to Give New Courage and Hope to the Officials in Charge.

New Orleans, Sept. 19.—Up to noon today there were eleven new cases of yellow fever and five deaths reported.

New Orleans, Sept. 19.—In spite of the prediction of fair weather there were showers against here, interfering to some extent with the work of sanitation. There was little change in the fever situation with the early reports pointing to the probability of more cases for Monday than were revealed by the Sunday report. An important meeting of the railroad commission, which was expected to extend over several days of this week has had to be postponed owing to the quarantines.

Conferences were still in progress today in the effort to settle the cotton strike on the river front with fair prospects of success. Strong pressure has been brought to bear on both sides, business men and the whole community believing tha towing to the yellow fever losses there should be mutual concessions so that the cotton trade may not be interrupted when it comes in full swing.

Though hope that the fever would be eradicated by the first of October was some time ago abandoned, general opinion is that if the threats of the authorities have their effect and suppression is no longer practiced, the fight will be virtually at an end 15 days later than the date set. Steady improvement is looked for from now on in the matter of new cases, the daily record of which now would be much better than it is if the authorities had opportunity to subtract from the lists the cases which, reported as yellow fever, develop into something else.

Among the deaths in the past 24 hours was Jean Condoure, whose end came in the Emergency hospital. Condoure is the patient whom Surgeon Terry kidnaped from Mrs. Marie Caraux's store at 900 Bourbon, one day last week, and it is an illustration of how even the most desperate cases have been concealed here.

No physician had been called by Condoure and that there was a case of yellow fever in his house would never have been suspected if neighbors had not grown suspicious of his absence from the store for a couple of days. At the hospital it was fund that Condoure had a genuine case of yellow fever. It is generally considered that the Saturday festival has had a most excellent effect upon the spirits of the local people. It made a deep impression on the outsiders who are here.

Such a spontaneous exhibition of light-heartedness, like the spirit of carnival, would not be possible anywhere except in New Orleans, said Dr. White. This is gratifying in itself, for it is always more pleasant to work with people who maintain their poise and self-possession than to work with people who are scared. President Roosevelt's message created an exceedingly favorable impression.

"Should you come to New Orleans our appreciation and feelings will be shown in the welcome we will give you," Mayor Behrman said in his telegram of acknowledgment, "and that represents the sentiment of the whole community."

Women Act as Fire Laddies.

Columbus, Ga., Sept. 19.—The gin house of the Midland Gin company at Midland, in this county, caught on fire by a match which was in the cotton, but although the flint was burned, the building was saved, due to the work of the bucket brigade, prominent in which [illegible]

PIRATES APPEAR IN CHICAGO.

Ship Bearing Black Flag Causes Consternation Along Lake Front.

Chicago, Sept. 19.—With a black flag flying its masthead, and its occupants armed, a sailing craft appeared off the Thirty-third district yesterday afternon and attacked members of the Douglas Yacht club, and the latter were forced to appeal to the police.

The pirates weighed anchor and disappeared in the direction of South Chicago. The appearance of the pirate ship, the police say, was seen by scores of persons on the shore and from windows in a number of houses.

The vessel dropped anchor less than half a mile out in the lake and its sailors clambered over the sides into a yawl and were rowed to the small building of the yacht club. Carrying rifles and other weapons, the invaders gave chase to those sitting on the piazzas of the building and pursued them for some distance. Blows were exchanged and a hand-to-hand struggle was engaged in, but the persons in the small party at the boat house were routed and they telephoned to the police.

As the first of the policemen appeared the "pirates" hurried to where their yawl was, rowed back to their yacht and sailed away.

The police believe that the pirates are youthful burglars who live in the districts of South Hyde park, and who have long been wanted for a series of robberies.

KING REVIEWS SCOTCH TROOPS.

40,000 Scottish Volunteers Pass In Parade Before His Majesty.

Edinburgh, Scotland, Sept. 19.—The greater muster of Scotchmen under arms since the battle of Fladdenfield, was reviewed by King Edward today. The king arrived at the Scottish capital this morning and proceeded to Hollyrood palace when attended by the duke of Conneaught and a brilliant staff, he rode to the parade ground in King's park, where nearly 40,000 Scottish volunteers marched past his majesty.

Enormous numbers of visitors from all parts of Scotland and the north of England witnessed the review which is expected to assist in counteracting the extreme irritatioin felt in volunteer circles over recent worrying regulations of the war office.

During the march past Sir Thomas Lipton, who is honorary colonel of the Second Lanarkshire engineers, was leading his regiment past the king when his horse threw him and Sir Thomas was kicked in the face. His injuries are not serious.

RUSSIA OPPOSES NEW FORT.

Turkey's Improvement on the Bosphorous Displeases the Czar.

Constantipole, Sept. 19—The steady progress of the work on the new fortifications on the Bosphorus is causing friction between the Russian and the porte. The fortifications were hastily commenced at the time of the mutiny on board the Russian battleship Kniaz Potemkine, Turkey seizing upon this pretext as a means for carrying out a scheme of fortifications which she had long desired, but which had always been opposed by Russia. It is understood that the question was discussed at the recent audience which the Russian ambassador, M. Zinovieff, had with the sultan, the ambassador pointing out that the further fortifications of the straits was incompatible with friendly relations between Turkey and Russa.

Meanwhile the works are being actively pushed, though this can hardly be completed for several months. The porte continues its irreconcilable attitude regarding the proposed international financial condition of Macedonia.

Bridgemen's Union in Session.

Philadelphia, Sept. 19.—Nearly 100 delegates representing 30,000 members of the International Union of Bridgemen and structural iron workers of America and Canada today begun their ninth annual convention. The two principal matters before the convention will be the general strike of the iron workers against the American Bridge [illegible]

SOVEREIGN GRAND LODGE IN SESSION

Supreme Branch of I. O. O. F. Meet In Philadelphia.

GREAT GROWTH OF THE ORDER

Report of Grand Sire R. E. Wright Shows a large Increase of Membership—Enormous Crowd Is in Attendance.

Philadelphia, Sept. 19.—Disagreements as to the conditions marked the formal opening of the annual convention of the Sovereign Grand Lodge of the Independent Oreder of Odd Fellows. A fine rain was falling and the atmosphere was warm and humid.

The initial exercises were held in Lulu temple, which was entirely inadequate to accommodate the crowds.

Every jurisdiction of the order is represented at the conclave. Grand Sire Robert E. Wright, of Allentown, will preside at all of the business sessions of the grand lodge, and will be at all public meetings. The opening exercises consisted of an address of welcome by Mayor Weaver and addresses by Melville E. Churbuck, grand master; Cleon Gicquelais, grand patriarch; Miss Annie Morrow, President of the Rebeckah Assembly, and Major General J. Blair, department commander.

The grand lodge will also consider the question of extending the order in Porto Rico, San Domingo and Scotland.

The report of Grand Sire Wright show the total subordinate lodge membership to be 1,217,145; encampment membership, 177,839; Rebeckah membership, 474,059; number of subordinate lodges, 14,315; expenditures for relief $4,633,649; total revenue, $13,638,791; total resources $37,645,071.

The increase in membership of subordinate lodges was 65,724; in the encampment branch, 9,990; in the Rebeckah branch, 26,391; making a total increase of 102,105. The Patriach Militant will show a decrease in member but that decrease is only nominal and doubtless results from that clearing out of names that really did not represent active members of that branch. The increase in expenditures was $751,077; the incerase in resources was $2,974,951 and the increase in relief $307,189.

PROTEST AGAINST MASSACRES.

Armenian-American Citizens Hold a Large Meeting in Boston.

Boston, Sept. 18.—The Armenian-American citizens of Boston and the vicinity held a mass meeting last night to protest against the massacres of Armenians in the Caucasus.

The local officials were charged with having actually incited the disorders and encouraged Moslem fanaticism.

"By seizing the weapons of the Armenians," the speaker declared, "the Russian authorities deprived our compatriots of their means of self-defense, and furthermore, did not use their military power to protect them against the attacks by Tartars but on the contrary, allowed the leaders of these outrages to go unpunished."

The Russian government in entire disregard of international law, permitted the entrance into its territory of armed Kurds to join the Tartars in their murder and plunder.

"We protest against this barbarous state of affairs in the Caucasieus, and appeal to the humane sentiments of the American people and government to bring pressure to bear upon the government at St. Petersburg and an end to the bloodshed."

Norway Not Mobilizing Trops.

Christiana, Norway, Sept. 19.—Another semi-official denial of the renewed charges of a Norwegian mobilization of troops was issued in thois morning's Swedish papers. It declared that Norway has made military preparations except such as were absolutely necessary from a defensive point of view, and the report that practically all the troops in central Norway and in the frontier districts have been mo[illegible]

TO CONTROL COTTON INSURANCE

Big Fight on Between Domesic and Marine Companies.

Birmingham, Ala., Sept. 19.—A special to the News from Jackson, Miss. says that a big fight is about to be launched between the domestic fire insurance companies operating in the south, and the marine companies for control of the cotton insurance business.

Edward Yerger, of Jackson, president of the Mississippi fire underwriters's association, and a member of the special committee of five members appointed at the recent meeting of the national association of fire insurance underwriters, held in Denver to consider this suject and devise a plan of action, has been notified that the committee will meet in New York Oct. 15 to map out a plan of battle and present indications are that this meeting will be the beginning of some lively rate slashing between the [illegible] mesitc and the marine companies.

The trouble is one of long standing and, it is claimed, results from the marine companies gobbling up the [illegible] ore end of the cotton insurance risk, placing a policy on cotton from the moment it leaves the gin until it is landed in the hands of the foreign consumers. The domestic concerns contend that they are entitled to the shore end of the insurance and on this the threatened war involving all the cotton insurance business in the south hinges.

COTTON GROWING IS A FAILURE

Attempts to Raise Staple in Africa is Unsuccessful.

Washington, Sept. 19.—The department of commerce and labor has just published a report stating that the result of the attempt to grow cotton in West Africa has been very discouraging owing to the absence of transportation facilities and the lack of laborers.

In Sierra Leone the cotton association tried American seeds but the plantation did not prove to be a success. Under the most favorable conditions Sierre Leone could produce 140,000 bales, but for the next ten months not more than 6,000 bales may be expected. In Nigeria, with a population of 20,000,000 fairly civilized people is best fitted for the cotton industry, but the lack of transportation facilities makes it impossible to conduct it.

The colonies, Lagos, Southern Nigeria, Gold Coast, Sierra Leone and Gambia could, under the most favorable conditions, produce 350,000 bales and for the next eight years, not more than 100,000 bales can be expected.

BIG CONVENTION FOR CHICAGO.

Delegates Representing Industrial and Producing Interests to Meet.

Chicago, Sept. 19.—Delegates representing the various trades, industrial and producing interests of the country are to hold a convention in Chicago Oct. 26-27.

The object of the convention is to impress upon congress the extent of the demand from all parts of the country for legislation outlined in the president's last message to congress as follows:

"The interstate commerce commission should be vested with the power, where a given rate has been challenged and after full hearing found to be unreasonable to decide, subject to judicial review, what shall be a reasonable rate to take its place, the ruling of the committee to take effect immediately, and to obtain unless in is reversed by the court of review."

The convention also will endeavor to arouse public interest in the movement.

Fell Dead in Church.

Monroe, Sept. 19.—While sitting in a pew [illegible] close to the altar that he could have reached out and touched it, the Rev. William F. Robinson, pastor of the Methodist church of Monroe, Ga., died suddenly Sunday morning in the Baptist church at Monroe. The peculiarly tragic death of the Rev. Mr Robinson, attended as it was by such unusual circumstances, caused widespread sorrow and comment. The Rev. Mr. Robinson was well known all over Georgia, and the details of his death will be read with sorrowful interest by the thousands who knew [illegible]

MISSISSIPPI RIVER IS RAPIDLY RISING

Recent Heavy Rain Has Caused Many Swollen Streams

MUCH PROPERTY IS IN DANGER

Produce and Other Merchandise Stored on the Levee Is Being Hastily Removed to Safe Places—Great Damage to Railroads Is Wrought.

St. Louis, Sept. 19.—Heavy [illegible] and swollen tributaries have [illegible] rise of over 10 feet in the Mississippi river during the past 24 hours and resulted in damage along the St. Louis river front amounting to many thousands of dollars.

A vast amount of produce and [illegible] shipping property along the [illegible] still in danger. The river [illegible] forenoon had reached 23.05 [illegible] sudden rise of 10.25 feet in 24 [illegible] The danger line is 35 feet. [illegible] ter is graduallly creeping up, [illegible] predicted that by nightfall the [illegible] will show a stage of 28 feet.

Produce houses and grain and [illegible] firms having consignment stored along the levee, hastily organized gangs of laborers and endeavored to save their property from being swept away. [illegible] the suddenness of the freshet interfered to a considerable extent. Thousands of barrels of apples, [illegible] hay, sacks of grain, bales of [illegible] and in one instance 75,000 feet of lumber, was swept away.

Men worked breast-deep in the flood intercepting floating merchandise and a fleet of skiffs manned by [illegible] boat hooks assisted in the salvage work.

This marks the quickest rise in the river's stage since that of 11 years ago when the river rose 14 feet in one night.

Washouts at various places in Missouri caused the annulment today of five trains due here. They were the Texas accommodation of the Missouri, Kansas and Texas, two train due from Kansas City on the Missouri Pacific and two trains due from the west on the Wabash. Trains on the Iron Mountain and Burlington systems were an hour or more late in arriving.

Heavy Rainfall in Kansas.

Kansas City, Sept. 19.—Rain has fallen in Kansas City and vicinity every day excepting one in September with a total downfall to date of 13 inches in 17 days and today there is no prospects of immediate cessation. Practically the same conditions have prevailed throughout western Missouri and in a portion of eastern and central Kansas. As a result, all streams in this part of the country continue to rise and railroad traffic is becoming demoralized because of the numerous washouts.

Killed in Effort to Escape

Manila, Sept. 19.—Felizardo [illegible] of the outlaws in the province of Cavite, who for a long time have made trouble for the authorities, was surrounded today near the Batangas border and jumped over a cliff. He was killed by the fall, and his death it is believed, will end the disturbances in the province of Cavite. On January 24, 300 ladrones led by Felizardo and Montaleon attacked the town of San Francisco de Matabon, looted the municipal treasury of $2,000 killed [illegible] tract Surgeon J. A. O'Neill and abducted the wife and two children of Governor Trias.

Hypnotized for Four Years.

Raleigh, N. C., Sept. 19.—The police of Charlotte have a very queer [illegible] before them and have called in medical experts to aid in settling it. A young man, evidently insane, suddenly appeared on the street and was taken to the jail. He gave his name as J. H. Hoke, and said to the authorities that Faya Shoira, a boy hypnotist at Gastonia, a town near by, four years ago put him under hypnotic influence from which he had never been free. Hoke stated that he had been in a hospital for the insane and inquiries have been sent to various institutions of this [illegible]

RECOGNIZES THE KICK.

Jacksonville Inspectors Will Not Put Passengers Off Train.

A few days ago there appeared an article in The Sun to the effect that a certain citizen, traveling from Gainesville to Jacksonville, could not produce a health certificate and would have been put off the train had it not been for the fact that another citizen, personally known to the conductor and health officer, vouched for the fact that he had not been in any infected district within ten days.

The city board of health of Jacksonville, in violation of the law of the state board of health, it seems, established a quarantine of its own. Inspectors were employed to meet the train at Baldwin, and if a fellow could not produce a clean bill of health there was trouble. As a result the traveling public, especially those on the Cedar Key-Jacksonville train, were put to considerable inconvenience and vigorous protest was made.

Dr. J. Harrison Hodges of this city, county agent of the State board of health, wired Dr. Porter, president, to ascertain by what right, if any, the Jacksonville board of health could establish quarantine against all sections of the State without authority of the state board. Dr. Porter replied that the Jacksonville board had no right and were violating the laws of the state board in maintaining a quarantine.

The Times-Union of the 18th instant states that the quarantine has been withdrawn, owing to the objection of Gainesville, and in future passengers will not be required to produce certificates.

WILL HAVE FINE DISPLAY.

Gainesville Planing and Coffin Company Will Go to Fair.

The management of the Gainesville Planing and Coffin Company has secured a fine space, 37x40, in the main exhibit building of the Florida State Fair, and will display to the world what Alachua county is capable of producing in the matter of coffins and caskets, turned balustrade work, cabinet work and other productions of this section.

While a display of coffins and caskets might not prove so desirable as an exhibit in other lines, they are something which are in demand, and somebody has got to make them. The Gainesville concern is up-to-date in this particular line, and has been at work for several days on the articles which will be taken to the fair. The finish will be of the best, and it goes without saying cannot be excelled in the South. The cabinet work will also be of the best, and altogether the display will no doubt be among the best at the fair.

THE YELLOW FEVER.

Prospects Are Very Favorable For Its Complete Rout.

Pensacola, September 19.—There has not been a new case of yellow fever here for six days and many of the refugees are returning home. Dr. Porter will certainly make a name for himself in his excellent work.

At New Orleans.

New Orleans, September 19.—From 6 p. m. yesterday to noon today there were 13 new cases and two deaths. Total deaths to date 343. The fever situation is showing some improvement.

Abscess.

Abscesses, with few exceptions, are indicative of constipation or debility. W. H. Harrison, Cleveland, Miss., writes, Aug. 15, 1902: "I want to say a word of praise for Ballard's Snow Liniment. I stepped on a nail, which caused the cords in my leg to contract and an abscess to rise in my knee, and the doctor told me that I would have a stiff leg, so one day I went to J. F. Lord's drug store (who is now in Denver, Colo.) He recommended a bottle of Snow Liniment: I got a 50c size, and it cured my leg. It is the best Liniment in the world." Sold by W. M. Johnson.

IN MAYOR'S COURT.

Simon Bell, Charged With Collusion, Fined $2 50 and Costs.

Simon Bell, the colored boy who was arrested Saturday by Marshal Pinkoson upon a charge of collusion with Chas. Brown in the larceny of a pair of trousers from the store of Royal Cook, was arraigned in the mayor's court, and after hearing the evidence in the case, Acting Mayor Broome assessed a fine of $2 50 and costs.

Bell stated that he was an innocent party to the theft. Brown, he said, took an extra pair of trousers and wrapped them with a pair he (Bell) had purchased, while he was looking at a coat.

Brown made his escape, and has not been apprehended.

SOCIETY OF THE CUMBERLAND.

Annual Reunion of the Veterans of This Army in Chattanooga.

Chattanooga, Tenn., Sept. 19.—The Society of the Army of the Cumberland met today in its annual reunion. There are several hundred men present, many of them prominent from the west, north and east. Although the attendance has been cut down by fear of possible danger of yellow fever. At 10 o'clock this morning the convention was called to order by Acting General James Barnett. The invocation was pronounced by Dr. J. H. Race, of Grant university and Mayro A. W. Chambliss delivered an address of welcome.

This afternoon excursions will be taken to the battlefields of Missionary Ridge and Orchard Knob. At night the annual oration will be delivered by Colonel John D. MvCook, of New York city. The music is furnished by the band of the Twelfth cavalry stationed at Fort Oglethorpe.

Woman Killed by Jilted Man.

Crown Point, Ind., Sept. 19.—Harry Homan, of Hammond, Ind., scion of a wealthy family, angered because his fiancee of five years had married Chas Jeannette, of Steger, Ills., in the presence of many persons, fired four bullets into his former sweetheart's heart and then killed himself. Miss Ida Taylor had been betrothed to Homan for five years, but two weeks ago she was married to Jeannette. Vowing vengeance, Homan came to Crown Point Saturday and secured a room at the hotel, where the Jeannettes staid.

Sprains.

S. A. Read, Cisco, Tex., writes, March 11, 1901: "My wrist was sprained so badly by a fall that it was useless; and after using several remedies that failed to give relief, used Ballard's Snow Liniment, and was cured. I earnestly recommend it to anyone suffering from sprains." Sold by W. M. Johnson.

Strange Case of Suicide.

Richmond, Ky., Sept. 19.—Grief-stricken because her 5-year-old son, from whose father she had been separated a month, grew pale with fear at the sight of her, and refused to come within her reach that she might kiss him, Mrs. Laura Walker Chemault, one of the most prominent society women in the state, committed suicide by smallowing carbolic acid. Her death was one of the most tragic in the history of the country.

Later it will be removed to the home of the late mayor in Gorey road in the Brighton district. A Stevenson Story.

A book on Stevenson tells of a speech he made at a gathering of Scotchmen in Samoa. He said: "I cannot say why we are proud to be Scotsmen, but the fact remains that we are. It is not that our land is sunny like these tropical isles, and its climate is not even lovely. Scotland's history contains little that is not disgusting to people of humane feelings. That long brawl which is called Scottish history contains scarcely one object that Scots have patience with." The address drew tears to the eyes of a German who had gone to the meeting violently prejudiced against Stevenson. No sooner had the speaker finished than the meeting proceeded to clasp hands and sing "Auld Lang Syne."

Curious Titles.

The English reformers adopted some curious titles for their devotional and controversial works. "Matches Lighted at the Divine Fire," "The Gun of Penitence," "The Shop of the Spiritual Apothecary," "The Bank of Faith," "Sixpennyworth of Divine Spirit," "Some Fine Biscuits Baked In the Oven of Charity, Carefully Conserved For the Chickens of the Church," "The Sparrows of the Spirit" and "The Sweet Swallows of Salvation" are among the number.

Four Nations.

Practical idealism takes with the German chiefly the form of devotion to duty. In the Russian it is a readiness to sacrifice everything to his inward feeling. In the Anglo-Saxon it is the staking of the whole person for a concrete, palpable and distinctly fixed purpose. In the Frenchman it is a general idea which carries him away to great deeds.—Baron F. von Wrangell in Contemporary Review.

Attacked by a Mob

And beaten in a labor riot, until covered with sores, a Chicago street car conductor applied Bucklen's Arnica Salve and was soon sound and well. "I use it in my family," writes G. J. Welch of Tekonsha, Mich., "and find it perfect." Simply great for cuts and burns. Only 25c at all drug stores.

Carefully Led Up To.

"Yonder," said the party of the first part, "is the house in which I was born. We lived on the first floor. McBooth Rantington, the great tragedian, occupied the upper apartments. He was not only a famous actor, but a singularly fortunate man."

"Then," responded the party of the second part, "you were born under a lucky star, eh?"

N. B.—The management begs to state that it considers this one of the most elaborately worked out jokes we have produced this season.—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Woman's Presence.

What a consoler is woman! No presence but hers can win a man from his sorrow. The soldier becomes a lightsome boy at her feet; the anxious statesman smiles himself back to the free hearted youth beside her and the still and shaded countenance of care brightens beneath her influence, as the closed flower blooms in the sunshine.

Belated Advice.

"That coat looks shabby," remarked Hicks to his intimate friend, the poet. "Why don't you have it turned?"

"Do you think this coat has three sides?" asked the impecunious one sadly. And nothing more was said on the subject.

Meeting of Trustees and Principal Held Tuesday Morning.

AN INTERESTING SESSION HELD

Matters of General Interest Affecting the School Were Discussed—Name of Institution Changed—The Faculty Meeting to be Held on Monday.

Apropos of the opening of the fall term of the University High School, as it will in future be known, the trustees, W. W. Hampton, J. H. Vidal, Geo. W. Hyde and W. N. Sheats, principal, held a meeting in the Auditorium Tuesday for the purpose of discussing school matters pertaining to this special district.

The meeting was attended with considerable enthusiasm, as the trustees and principal are fully alive to the situation and propose to give Gainesville the best and most successful term ever taught here.

It was decided to open the school on Monday, October 2, and the following will be the faculty: W. N. Sheats, principal; T. F. McBeath, Mrs. C. C. Powell, Mrs. W. P. Coffey, Serena Shannon, Florence Balis, Annie DaCosta, Mrs. Sallie Zetrouer, Mabel Sanchez, Nannie McIntosh. This faculty will be one of the strongest and most efficient in the State, and patrons may expect a successful term.

The name of the institution has been changed from the Gainesville Graded and High School to the University High School, and a preparatory course will be one of the new features. This will, of course, be the advanced grades of the school.

Work will begin immediately in cleaning up the grounds preparatory to the opening. Nicely graveled walks will be laid throughout the plat, the trees will be neatly trimmed and the grounds will be enclosed with a neat, substantial fence.

Principal Sheats has called a meeting of the faculty for Monday morning next, at 10 o'clock, in the Auditorium.

Some Handsome Fruit.

J. S Goode, who recently returned from Tampa, where he has been looking after his grove interests, brought with him a sample of grape fruit and oranges which were taken from his three-acre grove on the outskirts of the South Florida city. Mr. Goode states that the trees are literally loaded down with fruit of the finest and most perfect maturity and the prospects are that he will harvest a good crop.

Old Age and Matrimony.

When he was considered quite an old man James, Lord Balcarres, went to stay with old Lady Keith. There were a number of young ladies in the house and, before he arrived, Lady Keith said to them: "Now, there is this old gentleman coming to stay, and I particularly wish that you should all endeavor to make yourselves as pleasant to him as you can." They all agreed to do so, but a Miss Dalrymple said: "You may all do what you like, but I'll bet you anything that you please that I'll make the old gentleman like me best of us all." And so she did. She made him perfectly devoted to her all the time he was there, yet when he asked her to marry him she laughed in his face. Lord Balcarres was extremely crestfallen, but when he went away he made a will settling everything he could upon Miss Dalrymple. Somehow she heard of this, and said: "Then, after all, he must really care for me, and I will marry him." And she did. He was fifty-eight then, but they had ten children.

Wise M. P.'s.

It need hardly be pointed out, says the author of "Fifty Years In Fleet Street," that to be elected a member of parliament does not necessarily imply intellectual superiority. Shortly after the Burmese war a young civilian, home on leave, happened to mention Burma.

"Ah, yes, Burma," said an M. P. with whom he was sitting at table. "I had a nephew who was in Burma only he used to call it Bermuda."

On another occasion, in the month of March, some one said to Mr. Livesey:

"This is a cruel east wind."

"Yes," was the would be witty reply. "I expect it will be Easter before it is over."

This was repeated by the author of the book quoted to a respected member of parliament, who observed gravely: "I fancy he's right. I have known it last till Easter and longer yet."

A Glasgow Cemetery.

The Necropolis cemetery, Glasgow, as originally planned, contained almost exactly twenty-four acres available for burials, and it was suggested that each division of one acre should be named after a letter of the Greek alphabet which contains twenty-four characters. For various reasons this idea has not been fully carried out, but fifteen sections of the cemetery have been so named from alpha to omega, the monosyllable letters between these being omitted. The names have not been applied in any particular sequence, but with the aid of a small map they are useful in locating any particular spot in what is now one of the most densely filled graveyards in the kingdom.

OLD TIME DENTISTRY.

Queer Instruments In Harvard Dental School's Collection.

Like many other of the "new" professions, dentistry is a very old one. It is known that 400 years before the beginning of the Christian era Egyptian dentists filled teeth with gold, but no trace of their methods of doing their work has ever been found. Aesculapius, the patron of physicians, was the first famous dentist in Roman history, and the old Romans used a toothpick very much like the little wooden one that is made today. The Arabians ages ago produced a dentifrice, but it soon seemed to be very generally used.

The story of dentistry is told in the instruments it has employed. As they are known today they had their beginning in the sixteenth century, but their evolution has been slow. In the Harvard Dental school in Boston there is a collection of instruments used by dentists in the first half of the last century. One of the formidable tools it includes is what was called a key, doubtless from its peculiar shape, which was used for extracting teeth, the process being to slowly and painfully twist and pry the offending molar out of its place. In order that no mistake should be made the dentist began operations by hammering and prodding one tooth after another with a sort of bludgeon until he had satisfied himself not to mention the tortured patient—that he had found the most sensitive one and therefore the most likely candidate for extraction.

The grandfathers of the delicate steel tools that lie in rows on the modern dentist's table were small in number, but large in awfulness. There are in the Harvard collection chisels and mallets, rude forceps for removing the teeth, miniature crowbars used to repair cavities for filling, files for sharpening the cutting and grinding surfaces of teeth and one particularly horrid instrument, known as the pelican, with which teeth were "lifted."

How rapidly and recently dentistry has become one of the important sciences appears in the fact that in the middle of the last century blacksmiths were doing their best—or worst—to relieve the victims of the toothache, while today institutions like the Harvard Dental school attract students from all over the world. Besides, while it was sure torture to go to the dentist in the so called "good old days," such a visit now is comparatively comfortable, so far has the profession gone in the direction of performing its operations without causing pain.

Harvey Waters, an expert on patent cases, had occasion to write Rufus Choate on some important question, and when he received the reply was unable to read a word of it, so took the missive to Mr. Choate and asked him what he had written. Mr. Choate replied: "I never can read my writing after the ink is dry, but if you tell me what it is about I will tell you what I have written." And he did.

Well, for the information of thousands of people who like to know all about a good thing, we would say that HERPICIDE means, a destroyer or killer of "Herpes." The front of her waist was stained with blood. The section of the city where the body was found is known as Hell's Kitchen, and is the stamping ground of some tough characters.

FLORIDA FULLER'S EARTH.

The production of fuller's earth, which is consumed in this country chiefly by the manufacturers of lard and cottolene, increased from 20,693 short tons, valued at $190,277, in 1903, to 29,480 short tons, valued at $168,500, in 1904, according to the annual report of the United States Geological Survey. It is noteworthy that the price was considerably less during 1904 than during 1903. The production was limited largely to Florida, shared to some extent by Arkansas, and to a less degree by Alabama, Massachusetts, Colorado and New York. Utah produced an experimental lot of half a ton during the year. Of unwrought or unmanufactured fuller's earth 1,763 long tons, valued at $9,546, were imported into the United States during 1904, and 7,363 long tons of wrought or manufactured fuller's earth, valued at $64,460.

Fuller's earth is chiefly employed abroad for fulling wool, but in America it is used mainly for deodorizing, bleaching, and clarifying fats, oils and grease. For the purpose of clarifying lard and cotton-seed oil a small quantity, 2 to 3 per cent of fuller's earth is ground to a fineness of 100 to 120 mesh and is added to the hot oil. After a thorough agitation the hot liquid is passed through a filter press, and when the earth and coloring impurities have been removed the oil is nearly white. It is understood that fuller's earth has almost superseded bone black in this process. A small quantity of fuller's earth is also marketed in powdered form, specially prepared for removing grease spots. It might also be used to advantage in removing calcium carbonate from water used for boiler supplies and thus prevent deleterious incrustations on the inside of boilers.

The value of fuller's earth as a bleacher in the filtration treatment of various oils is shown in the fact that while the quantity produced in the United States increased from about 7,000 short tons in 1895 to about 30,000 tons in 1904, the imports also have grown from over 8,000 tons in 1898 to over 15,000 tons in 1903. These 15,000 tons, together with our production of that year, made a total consumption of over 35,000 tons for 1903. Similarly in 1904, in spite of the increased production to 29,480 short tons, the imports were over 9,000 tons, so that the total quantity absorbed by the industry amounted to nearly 40,000 short tons.

The production of Florida in 1904 was about three-fourths of the entire output of the United States, and it will probably be greater next year. It is likely also that the output of fuller's earth in Arkansas for use in refining animal and cotton-seed oils will be considerably increased.

This report on fuller's earth is an extract from the Survey's forthcoming volume, "Mineral Resources of the United States, 1904," and may be obtained free of charge on application to the director of the United States Geological Survey, Washington, D. C.

IMMIGRATION.

The formal call for a conference of Southern representatives to meet in Chattanooga, in November, for the purpose of making an effort to secure desirable immigrants for the South, has been issued.

The object of the meeting should be of interest to all who are desirous of advancing the South, and while there is room for many thousands to build them good homes and lay aside money for future use, the space should be limited for the worthless class that are pouring into this country from foreign prisons. They are wholly undesirable, and it would be impossible to have them affiliate with our institutions.

The Sun has advocated the urging of Germans, Dutch, Swedes and Danes to locate on farms in Florida, where they can carry on gardening and other branches for which they are adapted, and as these people are sure to become citizens, remain here and raise large families, they are most preferred, as they are in most cases noted for their integrity and industrious habits. They seldom create discord, and their children grow up to become good American citizens.

The men at the head of this movement are what is needed to make it a success, as they comprise the governors of several States, congressmen, senators, railroad and newspaper men, besides others engaged in pursuits that desire the development of the country to be in good hands.

At this meeting a system of quarantine will be introduced and discussed that it is hoped will put a check on the dumping of every class of foreign rubbish on our shores.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer one hundred dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

The front of her waist was stained with blood. The section of the city where the body was found is known as Hell's Kitchen, and is the stamping ground of some tough characters.

FLORIDA FULLER'S EARTH.

The production of fuller's earth, which is consumed in this country chiefly by the manufacturers of lard and cottolene, increased from 20,693 short tons, valued at $190,277, in 1903, to 29,480 short tons, valued at $168,500, in 1904, according to the annual report of the United States Geological Survey. It is noteworthy that the price was considerably less during 1904 than during 1903. The production was limited largely to Florida, shared to some extent by Arkansas, and to a less degree by Alabama, Massachusetts, Colorado and New York. Utah produced an experimental lot of half a ton during the year. Of unwrought or unmanufactured fuller's earth 1,763 long tons, valued at $9,546, were imported into the United States during 1904, and 7,363 long tons of wrought or manufactured fuller's earth, valued at $64,460.

Fuller's earth is chiefly employed abroad for fulling wool, but in America it is used mainly for deodorizing, bleaching, and clarifying fats, oils and grease. For the purpose of clarifying lard and cotton-seed oil a small quantity, 2 to 3 per cent of fuller's earth is ground to a fineness of 100 to 120 mesh and is added to the hot oil. After a thorough agitation the hot liquid is passed through a filter press, and when the earth and coloring impurities have been removed the oil is nearly white. It is understood that fuller's earth has almost superseded bone black in this process. A small quantity of fuller's earth is also marketed in powdered form, specially prepared for removing grease spots. It might also be used to advantage in removing calcium carbonate from water used for boiler supplies and thus prevent deleterious incrustations on the inside of boilers.

The value of fuller's earth as a bleacher in the filtration treatment of various oils is shown in the fact that while the quantity produced in the United States increased from about 7,000 short tons in 1895 to about 30,000 tons in 1904, the imports also have grown from over 8,000 tons in 1898 to over 15,000 tons in 1903. These 15,000 tons, together with our production of that year, made a total consumption of over 35,000 tons for 1903. Similarly in 1904, in spite of the increased production to 29,480 short tons, the imports were over 9,000 tons, so that the total quantity absorbed by the industry amounted to nearly 40,000 short tons.

The production of Florida in 1904 was about three-fourths of the entire output of the United States, and it will probably be greater next year. It is likely also that the output of fuller's earth in Arkansas for use in refining animal and cotton-seed oils will be considerably increased.

This report on fuller's earth is an extract from the Survey's forthcoming volume, "Mineral Resources of the United States, 1904," and may be obtained free of charge on application to the director of the United States Geological Survey, Washington, D. C.

IMMIGRATION.

The formal call for a conference of Southern representatives to meet in Chattanooga, in November, for the purpose of making an effort to secure desirable immigrants for the South, has been issued.

The object of the meeting should be of interest to all who are desirous of advancing the South, and while there is room for many thousands to build them good homes and lay aside money for future use, the space should be limited for the worthless class that are pouring into this country from foreign prisons. They are wholly undesirable, and it would be impossible to have them affiliate with our institutions.

The Sun has advocated the urging of Germans, Dutch, Swedes and Danes to locate on farms in Florida, where they can carry on gardening and other branches for which they are adapted, and as these people are sure to become citizens, remain here and raise large families, they are most preferred, as they are in most cases noted for their integrity and industrious habits. They seldom create discord, and their children grow up to become good American citizens.

The men at the head of this movement are what is needed to make it a success, as they comprise the governors of several States, congressmen, senators, railroad and newspaper men, besides others engaged in pursuits that desire the development of the country to be in good hands.

At this meeting a system of quarantine will be introduced and discussed that it is hoped will put a check on the dumping of every class of foreign rubbish on our shores.

HERBINE
The Popular Liver Medicine Will Keep You Well

A GUARANTEED CURE for all diseases produced by TORPID LIVER and IMPURE BLOOD. Do not fill your system with Arsenic, Calomel and Quinine. They act as rank poisons which vitiate the blood, debilitate the system, and leave a trail of bad symptoms which require years to obliterate. HERBINE is purely vegetable and contains no mineral or narcotic poisons, is absolutely harmless and is the simple remedy of nature. It carries off all poison in the system and leaves no injurious effects.

CURED BY HERBINE AFTER OTHER REMEDIES FAILED

Mr. L. A. Hicks, Iredell, Texas, says: "I was sick in bed for eight months with liver trouble, the doctor seemed to do me no good. I was told to try Herbine, and it cured me in a short time. I cannot recommend this wonderful medicine too highly."

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer one hundred dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

HAD TWO LIVING WIVES.

Longshoreman In New York a Typical Jekyle and Hyde.

New York, Sept. 19.—John Grady, a longshoreman earning $12 a week was arrested yesterday charged with bigamy. It was found according to the complaint of his first wife, that he was maintaining a second establishment near his old home, while he pretended to be earning double wages by acting as night watchman.

Grady and wife were married 11 years ago. There are five children—all girls. Recently his first wife says Grady began to stay out nights. A few nights ago, the longshoreman entertained a party of friends and the beer can made frequent trips. Grady's tongue began to wag and later he talked in his sleep.

Early next morning Mrs. Grady went on a sleuthing tour, which resulted in her finding the second household.

Are You Engaged?

Engaged people should remember that, after marriage, many quarrels can be avoided by keeping their digestions in good condition with Electric Bitters. S. A. Brown of Bennettsville, S. C., says: "For years my wife suffered intensely from dyspepsia, complicated with a torpid liver, until she lost her strength and vigor and became a mere wreck of her former self. Then she tried Electric Bitters, which helped her at once and finally made her entirely well. She is now strong and healthy." Sold at all drug stores and guaranteed, at 50c a bottle.

Americans Given Luncheon.

Paris, Sept 19.—Minister of War Bertreaux and Mme. Bertreaux gave a luncheon today to Lieutenant General Adna R. Chaffee, Brigadier General Franklin Bell and Brigadier General William Crozier and their wives and staffs at the ministry of war, which was handsomely decorated. The guests included a representative of President Loubet, several cabinet ministers, officers of the army and navy, Ambassador McCormick and Ambassador Jusserand The band of the Republican Guard furnished the music. There were no formal toasts but many exchanges of amenities between representatives of the French and American armies.

Beautiful Women.

Plump cheeks, flushed with the soft glow of health and a pure complexion, make all women beautiful. Take a small dose of Herbine after each meal; it will prevent constipation and help digest what you have eaten. Mrs. Wm. M. Stroud, Midlothian, Tex., writes, May 31, 1901: "We have used Herbine in our family for eight years, and found it the best medicine we ever used for constipation, bilious fever and malaria." Sold by W M Johnson.

Prince's Visit Countermanded.

Halifax, N. S., Sept. 19.—Nothing is known here of the reasons for countermanding the orders of Prince Louise, of Battenburg squadron, to visit the United States as announced late last night in a dispatch received by Lieutenant Governor Jones. The only message from the Prince to Lieutenant Governor Jones came in the form of a brief announcement. Lieutenant Governor Jones stated that he did not know how to explain the change in plans, but was of the opinion that it might be on account of the approaching elections in England.

A Clear Complexion and Bright Eyes.

In most cases a sallow, blotched complexion and dull heavy eyes are due to poor digestion and an inactive liver. Orino Laxative Fruit Syrup aids digestion and stimulates the liver and bowels and makes the complexion smooth and clear. Orino Laxative Fruit Syrup does not nauseate or gripe and is mild and pleasant to take. Refuse substitutes. J. W. McCollum & Co.

Honored by His Countrymen.

New York, Sept. 19.—Prominent Hungarians of this city yesterday paid their respects to Captain Stephen J. Lang, of St. Louis, who was a trusted lieutenant of Louis Kossuth during his struggles to achieve independence for his native land. Captain Lang, who is aged 86, is spending the summer at Arevne, L. I. He had decided to spend the winter in this city, but an attack of illness compelled him to give up this idea and he returned last night to St. Louis.

Devoured by Worms.

Children often cry, not from pain, but from hunger, although fed abundantly. The entire trouble arises from inanition; their food is not assimilated, but devoured by worms. A few doses of White's Cream Vermifuge will cause them to cease crying and [illegible] their cheeks [illegible]

Strange Reward For Life Savers.

"I have seen a good many drowning accidents," said an old sea captain, "and I have seen a good many queer rewards. Once a young man rescued a young widow's little son from the sea. The widow, in her gratitude, asked for the young man's photograph. He sent it to her, and two months later he received a magnificent painting, by Smith, that showed the scene of the rescue accurately, with the little boy and him, both perfect likenesses, struggling like mad in the water.

"A farmer, one of the Pinkertons told me, came from the west to meet a gold brick man. As the farmer and the swindler crossed on the ferry the swindler fell overboard, and the farmer rescued him. He was so grateful that he gave the farmer a brick of solid silver.

"I saved a pretty girl from drowning in my youth," the captain ended. "She gave me a present that weighed 130 pounds. She gave me herself, and I've still got her. She may not be in as good condition now as she was then, but in my eyes somehow she is as sweet and pretty as she ever was."—Philadelphia Bulletin.

Green, the 16. ear-old boy who committed suicide at oche's hotel, New York, took his fe because of the hopelessness of his ve for a lady considerably his sen. r, who lives at Sparrow's Point, near is city. Men Past Sixty in Danger.

More than half of mankind over ixty years of age suffer from kidney nd bladder disorders, usually enlarge. ent of prostrate gland. This is both ainful and dangerous, and Foley's idney Cure should be taken at the rst sign of danger, as it corrects irreg. larities and has cured many old men f this disease. Mr. Rodney Burnett, ock Port, Mo., writes: "I suffered ith enlarged prostrate gland and kid. ey trouble for years, and after taking wo bottles of Foley's Kidney Cure I eel better than I have for twenty ears, although I am now 91 years ld." J. W. McCollum & Co.

Names of Guns on Men-of-war.

Polo Is Ancient.

Polo was played from the backs of orses in Persia during the tenth and leventh centuries. At that time the ersians in a great contest, Iran versus uran, found their match in the Turks, reatly to the disgust of King Afra. iab. The Byzantine poet Nizami sung f polo in the twelfth century. Then olo spread from Persia into central sia, India and Tibet in the sixteenth entury, when the great Emperor Ak. ar patronized it. In Japan the game s at least 1,000 years old and is still opular under the name of da-kin, or ball match."

He Knew His Man.

"You seem depressed."

"Yes. I've got to ask my girl's father ow for her hand."

"Don't be alarmed. The stern ather exists only in the comic papers."

"Maybe so, but the borrowing father s a painful reality. He'll land me for a fifty to a dead moral certainty."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Dr Finn's Yestimony Interesting.

Dr Thomas Finn of Boonsboro, Mo., who has practiced medicine for 32 years, says he has used every prescrip. ion known to the profession for treat. ment of kidney and bladder diseases, and says he has never found anything o effective in both chronic and acute idney and bladder trouble as Foley's idney Cure. It stops irregularities and builds up the whole system. J. W. cCollum & Co.
